HOFF SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT RE
BUDGET

26
27 Robert and Connie Hoff (the “Hoffs”), landlords of the Dayton Premises, submit this 28
29 statement regarding the status of the parties’ discussions over the budget to be attached to 30
31 the proposed form of order arising out of the Hoffs’ Motion for Relief from Stay and 32
33 Related Relief, heard by the Court January 26, 2018 at 9:30 a.m. The agreed upon form of 34
35 order, without the budget, was filed with the Court Monday, February 5, as Docket No.
36
37 1401.
38
39

40
41 The Hoffs have carefully reviewed the Trustee’s proposed budget and have three 42
43 concerns. First, they see no need for continued full time employment of a very expensive
44
45 chief operating officer, Paul Wagner, at a time of what was advertised as a shutdown, with

1 no operations. Second, they still do not understand the Trustee's intentions respecting
2
3 occasional projects, completing orders, and the like – they thought the company was shut
4
5 down and yet there appear to be continued operations, despite the ongoing operating
6
7 losses. Third, the Trustee's program seems to be in flux – as of the time of this writing, it is 8
9 not clear what buyers will be presented to the Court for approval; it is apparently still 10
11 possible though unlikely there will be an auction; and there are still significant disputes over 12
13 ownership of certain of the assets claimed by the estate, including the MALP/Medallie
14
15 Assets issue and the numerous claimants to dies and other intellectual property. When those 16
17 issues are resolved the budget can be refined and finalized.
